

David Younger, M.D. relocated to Imperial in September of 2014 and has been working as a Physician here at the Chase County Hospital & Clinics since then. He was born and raised in North Carolina where he obtained a B.S. degree in biology from the University of North Carolina and graduate from medical school in 1979 from Wake Forest University, School of Medicine. He went on to attend a three-year residency through the Wheeling Hospital Family Practice Program in Wheeling, West Virginia.

Before coming to Chase County, he was a Physician in Goodland Kansas for 10 years and in Burlington Colorado for 20 years prior to that.

He is currently board certified in Family Practice and was ranked in the 93rd percentile on his last board certification examination. Since 1992, he has been a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians. He is Board certified in Family Medicine by the American Board of Family Practice. He is currently serving as the Chief of Staff for the Hospital and the Medical Director for the Clinic.

Dr. Younger has been married for 46 years to Kay who is a Certified Lactation Educator. Their oldest daughter, Rainey, is a Teacher/Librarian at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs. They have a daughter, Mallory, who is a teacher in Cheyenne Wyoming and a son, Scott who works in construction in Cheyenne as well. They have one grandchild from Mallory, a two-year-old named Charlie, with another grandchild on the way.

Dr. Younger is an accomplished Viola player. He was an All-State musician in High School and continued playing into his adult life. He played with a small group of musicians for his church here in Imperial until other group members moved out of the area.

In his spare time, Dr. Younger likes to garden. He and his daughter Rainey, enjoy taking their Chihuahua and 3 lab-mix dogs on morning and evening walks. If you see them on their walk, be sure to give them a wave.